

2017

CCEA LEGISLATIVE REPORT CARD SOUTHERN NEVADA

CCEA had a specific legislative agenda for the 2017 Legislative Session. Our priorities were important to both educators and public education at large. Below is our rating on how legislators did based on their actions that demonstrated their willingness to move our agenda forward, be advocates for CCEA members, and be accessible throughout the Legislative Session.

SPONSORED CCEA LEGISLATIVE PRIORITIES

Senate Majority Leader Aaron Ford, SD 11 | SB 547, Salary Incentive for Professional Development & SB 369, School Climate Bill

Speaker Jason Frierson, AD 18 & Assemblyman Ozzie Fumo, AD 21 | AB 320, Evaluations Bill

Chairman Mo Denis, SD 2 | SB 178, Weighted Funding Formula Bill

Chairman Mo Denis, SD 2 & Chairwoman Joyce Woodhouse, SD 5 | SB 300, Peer Assistance & Review Bill

SENATE: ADVOCATE FOR CCEA EDUCATORS

Vice Chairman David R. Parks, SD 7

Senator Tick Segerblom, SD3

Senate Asst. Majority Leader Kelvin Atkinson, SD 4

Senate Minority Leader Michael Roberson, SD 20

Senator Becky Harris, SD 9

Senator Yvanna D. Cancela, SD 10

Senator Nicole J. Cannizzaro, SD 6

Senator Patricia Farley, SD 8

Senator Pat Spearman, SD 1

Senator Scott Hammond, SD 18

STATE ASSEMBLY: ADVOCATE FOR CCEA EDUCATORS

Chairman Tyrone Thompson, AD 17

Minority Floor Leader, Paul Anderson, AD 13

Assemblyman Nelson Araujo, AD3

Assemblyman Edgar Flores, AD 28

Assemblyman Elliot Anderson, AD15

Assemblywoman Brittey Miller, AD 5

Assemblyman William McCurdy, II, AD 6

Assemblywoman Daniele Monroe-Moreno, AD 1

Assemblywoman Shannon Bilbray-Axelrod, AD34

Assemblyman Keith Pickard, AD22

Assemblyman Chris Edwards, AD 19

Assemblyman Chris Brooks, AD 10

Assemblyman Steve Yeager, AD 9

Assemblyman Justin Watkins, AD 35

STATE ASSEMBLY: LET CCEA EDUCATORS DOWN

Chairwoman Maggie Carlton, AD 14

Chairwoman Carlton's failure to give SB 547, our Salary Incentive for Professional Development Bill, a hearing and therefore destroying our efforts to pass our bill into law was undoubtedly a major disappointment.