Additional funding will be provided for hearing costs including arbitrator’s fees and the cost of any required transcripts. E. CCEA'S SEXUAL HARRASMENT POLICY

Association

CCEA has vigorously and consistently opposed sexual discrimination in employment. With regard to its members, CCEA's opposition is reflected in efforts undertaken by CCEA on behalf of members who have been victims of such discrimination. As an employer, CCEA is equally committed to this principle of nondiscrimination and the collective bargaining agreement between CCEA and the Clark County Staff Organization (CCSO) representing UniServ employees traditionally has prohibited "discrimination on the basis of ...sex."

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) has indicated that sexual harassment is an unlawful form of discrimination on the basis of sex under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. It is, moreover, a violation of CCEA beliefs and contractual prohibitions against such discrimination and for the purposes of enforcing these prohibitions, the EEOC's definition of sexual harassment will be used. The definition is as follows:

Unwelcome sexual advances, request for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment, (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual, or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

The Executive Board reaffirms CCEA's commitment to ensure that its employees are provided with a work environment that is fair, humane, and responsible. Sexual harassment (as defined by the EEOC) is detrimental to the environment, and the Executive Board instructs the Executive Director to take such steps as he/she deems appropriate to deal with complaints of sexual harassment.

PROCEDURES

CCEA encourages any employee who questions the conduct of another or wishes to discuss specific concerns to confidentially bring the matter to the attention of the Deputy Executive Director. CCEA also recognizes that, because of the sensitive nature of the issues involved or other special circumstances, employees may be reluctant to process certain complaints of sexual harassment through the grievance or complaint procedure. Accordingly, CCEA in conjunction with CCSO and CCEA employees has established the following special procedure as an optional alternative for dealing with such complaints by employees in these groups.

1. Any employee who believes that he or she is the victim of sexual harassment may request a meeting with the Deputy Executive Director. Except in unusual circumstances, this meeting will be held within five days after the request is made and will involve only the complaining employee, the Deputy Executive Director, and the appropriate bargaining unit or staff organization president if the employee is a member of CCSO (hereinafter referred to as the President)).
2. The Deputy Executive Director and the President (if the employee is a member of CCSO) will investigate the complaint. This investigation will be treated as confidential, and any documents involved in or resulting from it will be kept in a special file by the Deputy Executive Director. Unless otherwise authorized by the complaining employee, only that employee, the Deputy Executive Director, the Executive Director, and the President (if the employee is a member of CCSO) will have access to this file.
3. Within 30 calendar days from the date that meeting was held, the Deputy Executive Director will recommend an appropriate course of action to the Executive Director, which, if the allegation is proven, may range from professional counseling for the offender to discharge or other appropriate discipline. The Executive Director or Deputy Executive Director will act on the complaint within 10 calendar days after receipt of the recommendation and promptly inform the complaining employee and the President of the action taken.
4. The complaining employee may not file a grievance under the collective bargaining agreement, if applicable, while this special procedure is being implemented. If the complaining employee (if the employee is a member of CCSO) is not satisfied with the action taken by the Executive Director he or she thereafter may utilize the grievance procedure and for purposes of the time requirement for filing, the period will begin on the date on which he or she was notified of such action by the Executive Director.

It is not CCEA's intention to regulate the legitimate social activities that its officers, employees and other representatives choose. CCEA believes, however, that it is obligated to provide each employee with a work environment that is free from unsolicited and unwelcome sexual overtures.
