

CCEA COMMITTEES

Participating in committees is a great way to help strengthen the Association. CCEA Bylaws establishes 10 Standing Committees and the President, with the approval of the Association Representative Council, appoints them. Each Committee reports their activities monthly to the Association Representative (AR) Council. The following is a list of the Standing Committees and a brief description of their role:

Budget Committee

The Budget Committee is responsible for the oversight of the operating budget of the Association. The Committee meets monthly with the CCEA Treasurer and Director of Finance and Administration. The Treasurer presents the Budget Committee's report to the CCEA Executive Board and to the AR Council at their monthly meetings.

Bylaws and Policy Committee

The Bylaws Committee is responsible for recommending revisions of the CCEA Bylaws for adoption by the AR Council.

The charge of this committee will be to use the information presented to the committee through Executive Board and AR members, to determine if the bylaws are addressing the needs of CCEA's membership. If they are not, develop language and recommendations for changes. The Bylaws committee should work in tandem with the Policy committee and ensure alignment of both, to our Mission and Vision.

The Policy Committee is responsible for proposing new policies and updating current policies of the Association and presenting them to the AR Council and Executive Board for action.

The charge of this committee will be to use the information presented to the committee through the Executive Board and ARC, to determine if the policies are addressing the needs of CCEA's membership. If they are not, develop language and recommendations for changes. Work in tandem with the Bylaws Committee and ensure alignment with CCEA Mission and Vision.

Elections Committee

The Elections Committee is responsible for conducting all elections and ratification of the Collective Bargaining Agreement. The Committee proposes the Standard Elections Procedures for adoption by the AR Council.

Government Relations Committee

The Government Relations Committee is responsible for increasing member awareness of the potential CCEA has to impact the political arena.

Work with the CCEA AR Council, Executive Board, and staff to meet the Mission and Vision of the organization. Work with leaders of all parties to engage on issues that cross party lines.
