

CCEA Endorsed Candidates

CCEA endorses the following candidates for Nevada State Legislative offices in the 2022 General Election. We are nonpartisan and support candidates who can work with and support our Legislative Agenda to diversify Nevada’s economy, by improving our workforce through continued investment in our k-20 education system.

Election Day is November 8th. Early vote will run from October 22nd to November 4th.

State Legislature

Assembly

- Daniele Monroe-Moreno (AD1)
- Heidi Kasama (AD2)
- Duy Nguyen (AD8)
- Steve Yeager (AD9)
- Rochelle Nguyen (AD10)
- Max Carter (AD12)
- Erica Mosca (AD14)
- Howard Watts (AD15)
- Claire Thomas (AD17)
- Venicia Considine (AD18)

- David Orentlicher (AD20)
- Elaine Marzola (AD21)
- Angie Taylor (AD27)
- Reuben D’Silva (AD28)
- Bert Gurr (AD33)
- Shannon Bilbray-Axelrod (AD34)
- Michelle Gorelow (AD35)
- Shea Backus (AD37)
- Sandra Jauregui (AD41)

Senate

- Melanie Scheible (SD9)
- Fabian Doñate (SD10)
- Julie Pazina (SD12)
- Jeff Stone (SD20)
- James Ohrenschaal (SD21)

Other Races

CCEA endorses the following candidates in local, statewide and federal races. Our endorsements are based on supporting candidates who support public education.

County Commission

Marco Hernandez (District E)

Board of Regents

Heather Brown (District 6)

Michelee “Shelly” Crawford (District 8)

Secretary of State

Cisco Aguilar

Congressional District 3

Susie Lee

Treasurer

Zach Conine

School Board

Irene Cepeda (District D)

Irene Bustamante Adams (District F)

Greg Wieman (District G)

City Council

Nancy Brune (Ward 6)

Joey Bowler (Mesquite Seat 3)

State Controller

Ellen Spiegel

Measure 3 - Ranked Choice Voting Initiative

Yes