PREAMBLE

We, the members of the Clark County Education Association CCEA, in order that the Association may serve as the local voice for public education, advance the cause of education as expressed through CCEA's mission and vision statements, promote professional excellence among educators, recognize the fundamental importance of the educator in the learning process, protect the rights of educators and advance their interests and welfare, secure professional autonomy, unite educators for active citizenship, promote and protect human and civil rights, act as the recognized bargaining agent for licensed personnel in Clark County, and obtain for its members the benefits of an independent, united education profession, do hereby adopt these Bylaws.

ARTICLE I

NAME, GOALS, OBJECTIVES, AND AUTHORITIES FOR GOVERNANCE

Section 1. NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Clark County Education Association, herein called the Association or CCEA.

Section 2. GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

- A. The goals of the Association shall be as stated in the Preamble. The Association shall have all the power necessary and proper to take action for the attainment of these goals.
- B. Nothing in these Bylaws shall be construed to prevent the Association from pursuing objectives that are consistent with the stated goals of the Association. The following are specific objectives:
  1. To improve the structure of the Association to ensure the full and effective participation of all members, thereby establishing and maintaining an independent, self-governing organization.
  2. To promote and protect the rights and welfare of its members.
  3. To advance professional rights and to enhance professional responsibilities to further the consistent development and improvement of the profession and its practitioners.
  4. To work for broad support of public education and for improved attitudes toward the profession.
  5. To advocate for adequate financial support for public education.
  6. To protect and support its members as employees in disputes with employers or with those acting on behalf of employers.

Section 3. GOVERNANCE

The Association shall be governed by its Bylaws and Policies, and such other actions as the Association Representative Council and Executive Board may take consistent therewith.

ARTICLE II MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. ELIGIBILITY

- A. Any member of the bargaining unit, as defined by the CCEA/CCSD Labor Agreement in the Clark County School District, may become a member of the Association.
- B. Any student in an education preparation program recognized by the Nevada Department of Education may become a Student Member of the Association.
- C. Student Members will enjoy all the benefits afforded to all other Association members with the following exceptions: (a) Where Prohibited by CCEA policy; and (b) with respect to voting or holding office as detailed below.

Section 2. RIGHTS, RESPONSIBILITIES, AND LIMITATIONS

- A. Members shall have the right to full participation in the Association upon signing a membership application.
- B. Members possess the right to freely express themselves regarding the Association. Member actions that seek to decertify, undermine, or destroy the CCEA shall be subject to censure, suspension, or expulsion by the process of the Review Board as outlined in Article VI. Members subject to censure, suspension, or expulsion shall be guaranteed the right of a due process hearing.
- C. Members who fail to adhere to any of the conditions of membership shall be subject to censure, suspension, or expulsion by the process of the Review Board as outlined in Article VI. A member subject to censure, suspension, or expulsion shall be guaranteed the right of a due process hearing.
- D. The Executive Board has the discretion to deny membership to any applicant or bar the admission of any individual if the applicant or individual has sought to decertify, undermine, or destroy CCEA or, in the Executive Board's judgment, the applicant or individual's membership would not be in the best interests of CCEA.
- E. Should an applicant or individual from paragraph D of this section be subsequently granted membership, the applicant or individual shall be prohibited from ever holding any elected or appointed position on any CCEA body. This prohibition shall not be subject to appeal.

Section 3. ASSOCIATION FISCAL/MEMBERSHIP YEAR

- A. The Association's fiscal year will be from September 1 through August 31.
- B. The Association's membership year shall commence on the first day of the contract year, or on the date of signing the agreement if the school year has already commenced and will continue through the day before the following contract year's start date.
- C. The Association's membership year for Student Members shall commence on September 1 of the year in which the Student Member signs the membership agreement or on the date of signing the agreement if after September 1 and will continue through August 31 of the following year.

Section 4. MEMBERSHIP DUES

- A. The member-elected Association Representative Council is empowered to set dues for the Association. The Association may only alter dues by a democratic vote of that body.
  - i. A motion to alter dues may be presented at ARC and voted on at the following ARC meeting. No proposal to set dues shall be presented at the May ARC meeting.
- B. The membership fees for persons eligible for membership who are regularly employed for fifty (50) percent or less of the normal schedule for full-time employees shall be one-half (1/2) of the dues.
- C. The Association shall continue to allow membership to those members laid off due to a reduction in force with a reduction in dues of fifty (50) percent. Such eligibility for membership shall continue as long as such persons are eligible to be recalled or for three (3) years, whichever is longer.
- D. The Association may continue to allow full membership to members who are on leave of absence from the Clark County School District during the duration of the leave of absence as long as the member continues to pay full dues.
- E. The membership fees for persons eligible as Student Members will be set by the Associate Representative Council and will be set at a rate which is reduced from that of regular full-time membership.

ARTICLE III LEGISLATIVE BODY

Section 1. RESPONSIBILITY OF ASSOCIATION REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL

The Association Representative Council (ARC) shall be the legislative and policy-forming body of the Association.

Section 2. COMPOSITION OF THE ASSOCIATION REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL

- A. The Association Representative Council shall consist of the elected Association Representatives (AR), Other Licensed Professionals, and School Organizational Team (SOT) Representatives, CCEA Executive Officers, Executive Board members, Review Board members, and Committee members. Association Representatives and SOT Representatives will be elected from each school faculty according to the allocation in Article III, Section 3. The Association will encourage members to promote and support the diversity that is representative of CCEA's membership.

Section 3. ALLOCATION WITHIN THE ASSOCIATION REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL

- A. Each school will be entitled to one (1) School Organizational Team (SOT) Representative.
- B. CCEA members in each worksite shall elect two or more Association Representatives according to the following allocation:
  - Two Association Representatives for 1-25 members
  - One additional Association Representative for every additional 25 members, or portion thereof.
- C. All members who do not have representation through a school Association Representative shall meet in groups according to their Other Licensed Professionals (OLP) professional title and elect the corresponding number of Association Representatives per group to represent them in the Association Representative Council. OLP groups include, but are not limited to speech therapists, physical therapists, nurses, social workers, psychologists, occupational therapists, counselors, and audiologists. These groups will elect Association Representatives according to the following allocation:

Active CCEA members in each OLP group shall elect two or more Association Representatives according to the following allocation:

  - Two Association Representatives for 1-25 members
  - One additional Association Representative for every additional 25 members, or portion thereof.

The CCEA President must inform the various OLP groups by October 1 of the number of eligible employees to elect Association Representatives.

Section 4. ELECTION OF ASSOCIATION REPRESENTATIVES, OTHER LICENSED PROFESSIONALS, AND SCHOOL ORGANIZATIONAL TEAM REPRESENTATIVES

- A. The election of Association Representatives shall be conducted electronically according to elections committee procedures. The CCEA President or the President's designee shall conduct the election. All active members at a given work site will be eligible to vote.
- B. If no Association Representative is elected to the worksite in the manner prescribed in subparagraph (A) then the CCEA President may appoint Association Representatives to those worksites with the advice and consent of the Executive Board.
- C. Members at individual work sites will have the power to recall and replace Association Representatives. A petition for the recall of a school's Representative must be signed by a majority of CCEA members at the affected school and then presented to the CCEA President.
- D. The election of School Organizational Team (SOT) Representatives shall be conducted at the worksite according to the open nomination and secret ballot provisions. This election shall be conducted annually by CCEA in its role of electing the School Organizational Team (SOT) at each school. Only CCEA members elected to the SOT are eligible to become the SOT Representative. The CCEA member with the largest number of votes in the SOT Election shall be elected SOT Representative. If that position is refused, then the next member with the largest vote in the SOT election will be elected SOT Representative. SOT Representatives must be active SOT members.

- E. The election of OLP groups to the Association Representative Council shall be conducted electronically by the Association.
- F. Student Members are not eligible to vote for or be elected to the Association Representative Council or a SOT, except that the Executive Board of the Association may create non-voting positions for such members.

Section 5. ALTERNATE ASSOCIATION REPRESENTATIVES

Each work site and represented OLP group shall elect an Active member as an alternate Association Representative for each elected Association Representative allocated.

Section 6. VACANCIES OF ASSOCIATION REPRESENTATIVES

If a vacancy occurs after October 31, and there are no alternates, the President or the President's designee shall appoint a representative with the advice and consent of the Executive Board or conduct a democratic election if there is more than one candidate contending for the position(s).

Section 7. MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL

- A. The Association Representative Council (ARC) shall meet at least nine (9) times during the Association's fiscal year.
- B. The President, with the advice and consent of the Executive Board, shall set the time, location, and agenda for ARC meetings.
- C. The agenda for each Association Representative Council meeting shall be sent to all members of the ARC in advance of the meeting.
- D. All members of the Association Representatives Council shall have floor and voting privileges at all ARC meetings. Any CCEA member in good standing shall have floor privileges to address the meeting. Special Rules will be adopted at the first ARC meeting of the year to outline privileges for members participating electronically in ARC meetings.
- E. All Association Representative Council members present at an ARC meeting shall constitute a quorum for Association Representative Council meetings. That number will be recorded within fifteen (15) minutes after the start of each meeting. If more than one-half (1/2) of members leave at any point during the meeting, then official business must be suspended.
- F. The Association Representative Council shall adopt its own internal rules of procedures for meetings provided they are not in conflict with these Bylaws or Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised.
- G. In the event of an emergency, the Executive Board may authorize by a majority vote that the ARC meeting be held electronically, as long as all members can simultaneously hear each other and participate during the meeting.

Section 8. SPECIAL MEETINGS

- A. Special meetings of the Association Representative Council may be called by the CCEA President unless a regularly scheduled Association Representative Council meeting is scheduled within three weeks.
- B. The President shall call a special meeting of the ARC upon the written request to the Executive Board from fifty (50) ARC members.
- C. Association Representative Council members must be given notice at least ten (10) working days before the special meeting occurs. Twenty-five percent (25%) of ARC members shall constitute a quorum for the special meeting.

Section 9. RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE ASSOCIATION REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL.

The Association Representative Council shall:

- A. Attend all Association Representative Council meetings.
- B. Establish and amend Association Bylaws, Policies, and Election Procedures
- C. Establish dues.
- D. Adopt the annual budget.
- E. Receive and may act upon Committee Report

- F. Elect member(s) to fill Executive Board vacancy(s) that occur.
- G. Notify CCEA election results.
- H. Confirm members of the Review Board
- I. Receive and act upon the findings of the Review Board.

Section 10. RESPONSIBILITIES OF ASSOCIATION AND SCHOOL ORGANIZATIONAL TEAM REPRESENTATIVES.

Association and School Organizational Team (SOT) Representatives shall:

- A. represent CCEA and its members at their school by organizing monthly CCEA meetings and communicating important information to members.
- B. establish and implement a plan of action to increase the number of Union members at their school.
- C. commit to a working knowledge of the CCEA Collective Bargaining Agreement with the School District in order to answer the questions of members at their school.
- D. attend ARC meetings.

Section 11. Prohibited Behavior of an Association Representative Member.

- A. Actions that seek to decertify, undermine, or destroy the CCEA.
- B. Actions that undermine CCEA’s ability to get a contract.
- C. Actions that seek to organize or coordinate a mass membership drop from the CCEA.
- D. Advocating for or encouraging any of the above behaviors in writing, online, or in-person.

ARTICLE IV
EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Section 1. ELECTED OFFICERS

The elected Executive Officers of the Association shall consist of the President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Executive Officers shall be voting members of the Executive Board and the Association Representative Council.

Section 2. ELIGIBILITY

In order to be eligible to be an Executive Officer, CCEA membership must be held for at least two (2) fiscal years immediately preceding the time of taking office on August 1. unless they have been out on an approved leave of absence. Members must have achieved a post-probationary member status with the School District at the time of the election in order to qualify for the offices of President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Members must have served one (1) fiscal year as a member of the Executive Board at the time of nomination in order to qualify for the offices of President or Vice President. If there are no members who have served at least one (1) fiscal year as a member of the Executive Board who are nominated for the offices of President or Vice President, then nominations will be opened to any member who is in post-probationary status with the School District.

Student Members are not eligible to vote for or be elected as Executive Officers.

Section 3. LIMITATIONS

Elected Executive Officers may not hold more than one CCEA elected office at the same time during their term of office.

Section 4. OATH OF OFFICE

All elected officers must take an Oath of Office before their term of office begins and shall comply therein.

Section 5. OFFICERS' DUTIES, TERMS, AND VACANCIES

A. President

The CCEA President shall be the chief executive officer of the Association. The position of President shall be full-time release. A full-time release President is defined as a member who is elected as President, serving full-time as President without any responsibilities for the position from which they are being released.

1. Powers and Core Competencies

Pursuant to the policy, the President is responsible for carrying out these powers and mastering these competencies while in the role of President.

  - 8. Direct the work of CCEA's Executive Director, in conjunction with the Executive Board, including writing the Executive Director's evaluation.
  - 9. Perform all administrative duties for Governance, including CCEA Committees, and such other duties as assigned by the Association Representative Council or the Executive Board.

2. Term of Office

The CCEA President is an elected office with a four-year term of service beginning in 2020 and thereafter. A member elected to the office of President is eligible for two terms and shall serve until a successor is elected. The term of President shall begin on August 1st in the year in which the election of the President has occurred.

3. Vacancy

If the office of President shall become vacant, the Vice President shall become President. However,

- a. If the vacancy occurs during the first half of the President's term, a special election for the President shall be held during the regular elections to fulfill the rest of that term of office.
- b. If the vacancy occurs during the second half of the President's term, the Vice President shall fulfill the remainder of that term of the President and be able to run for two additional terms as President.
- c. A member elected to fulfill the term of a vacated seat in the first half of the term will be eligible to run for one additional term in that seat; if elected in the second half of the term, the member will be eligible to run for two additional terms.

4. Salary

The President will be paid at the daily rate of pay for the highest step in Column V of the Licensed Professional Salary Table unless the President qualifies to be on a higher Column. Then, the President will be paid, at their current Step and Column, for 220 days during the Association fiscal year, including vacations and holidays as contained in the staff's contract. The President will also be paid any additional pay (i.e., step increases, longevity, bonuses, etc.) which they would have otherwise been entitled to as a member of the bargaining unit. Any additional days worked or benefits will be determined by Association policy.

5. Onboarding and Professional Development.

- A. In the summer, immediately following an election for President of the organization, the President-Elect shall complete the following onboarding programs that are created or Coordinated by CCEA staff.
  - a. Education Policy
  - b. State Politics
  - c. Advocacy
  - d. Fiduciary Responsibilities
  - e. Government Relations
- B. After the completion of the president's annual review, if they are found to have deficiencies in any of the areas listed in part A of this section, the executive board may direct the Executive Director to develop or coordinate training(s) in those areas where a deficiency exists that the President will attend and complete.

B. Vice President

A. Vice President is defined as a member who is elected as Vice President. The CCEA Vice President is not a release time position. When CCEA's membership reaches 13,000 members CCEA may adopt a budget for a release time Vice President and set the responsibilities, conditions, and salary of the release time Vice President. The Vice President will receive a stipend based on their contractual rate of pay for the time that they are required to perform work for CCEA beyond their contractual day.

1. Duties

The duties of the Vice President vary depending on if the officer is released full-time from the classroom or not.

- A. When still teaching full time, the Vice President shall:
  1. Act for and on behalf of the Association when the President is unable to perform the duties of that office Article IV. Section 5, A.1.
  2. Perform such other duties on behalf of the Association.
  3. Serve as an ex officio member without vote on all committees and ensure that the Standing committees are meeting to do the work of the Association.
  4. Engage members and recruit new members to join the organization.
  5. Build relationships with trustees and CCSD Superintendent, reach out to them, and meet to discuss CCEA's priorities.
  6. Actively work with CCEA staff and CCEA President to develop competency in discussing and advocating on Education Policy issues the organization is prioritizing.
- B. When released from the classroom full time the Vice President shall:

  2. Serve as the Chair of the CCEA Government Relations Committee
  3. Work with CCEA staff to coordinate all CCEA GR work.
  4. Perform such other duties on behalf of the Association.
  5. Serve as an ex officio member without vote on all committees and ensure that the Standing committees are meeting to do the work of the Association.
  6. Engage members and recruit new members to join the organization.
  7. Build relationships with trustees and CCSD Superintendent, reach out to them, and meet to discuss CCEA's priorities.
  8. Actively work with CCEA staff and CCEA President to develop competency in discussing and advocating on Education Policy issues the organization is prioritizing.
  9. Attend public meetings to represent CCEA, when appropriate, like CCSD trustee meetings, State DOE Meetings, Commission on Education funding, etc.
  10. Represent the Association at public, professional, and governmental functions.
  11. Coordinate with the CCEA President to visit CCSD school sites to address educator concerns and recruit new members.
  12. Meet with CCEA leaders to help them organize their buildings and support CCEA leaders to develop their leadership and organizing skills at their sites.

2. Term of Office

The CCEA Vice President is an elected office with a four-year term of service beginning in 2020 and thereafter. A member elected to the office of Vice President is eligible for two terms and shall serve until a successor is elected. The term of Vice-President shall begin on August 1st in the year that the election for vice-president occurs.

3. Vacancy

If the office of Vice President shall become vacant, the Association Representative Council shall elect a member of the Executive Board to serve as Vice President for the interim period.

However,

- a. If the Vice President was serving as President during the first half of the President's term, they shall return to the office of Vice President upon the ratification of the special Presidential election results by the Association Representative Council.
- b. If the Vice President was serving as President during the second half of the President's term, then they shall fulfill the remainder of the President's term.
- c. If the Vice President was not serving as President, and the vacancy occurs during the first half of the Vice President's term, a special election shall be held during the regular election period to elect a Vice President to fulfill the unexpired term of that office.
- d. If the Vice President was not serving as President, and the vacancy occurs during the second half of the Vice President's term, the interim Vice President will fulfill the remainder of the term of office.
- e. A member elected as Vice President to fulfill the term of a vacated seat in the first half of the term will be eligible to run for one additional term; if elected in the second half of the term, the member will be eligible for two additional terms.
